Hastings and Bexhill Waterfront

With the weather getting warmer, it is the perfect time to get on your bike!

This is a fantastic coastal cycle route ideal for beginners and families. It runs alongside a railway line, linking two existing paths to complete a 5km traffic-free route from Hastings to Bexhill or vice versa! As you come into the seaside resort of Bexhill-on-sea, the traffic free path ends and you join the De La Warr Parade.

For more information on this route, please visit the Sustrans website at: Hastings and Bexhill Waterfront - Sustrans.org.uk

Changing your commute

When you do go back to your place of work, rather than driving, why not try cycling there instead? Many towns have created new cycle lanes to provide safe spaces for cycling. If you don't have a bicycle, online retailers such as Chain Reaction Cycles and Wiggle have some great offers. The government also offers the Cycle to Work scheme, which allows you to get a bicycle via a salary sacrifice scheme. More information can be found at: www.cyclescheme.co.uk.

Why not join a new club this spring?

Bexhill Ramblers Club:

Bexhill Ramblers Club is a friendly and sociable group of walking enthusiasts who meet on Tuesdays and Saturdays. The Club is open to all ability levels, from beginners to experts and beyond. Their routes take them around Bexhill, providing its members with exciting variety. It is the perfect way to maintain or even boost fitness levels, in a way that the whole family can join. More information is available at:

Gillham Woods Nature Reserve

Gillham Wood is a small oasis of woodland in Cooden, just west of Bexhill, a remnant of a once larger wooded area. Today, it is a valuable community asset within a residential area, much loved by locals for informal recreation and dog walking. The easiest access is from Withyham Road which runs along the southern boundary. There is a small lay-by here for parking. The reserve is flat, and there are no gates or stiles.

For more information on this, please visit the Sussex Wildlife Trust website at: Gillham Woods | Sussex Wildlife Trust.

Bexhill Promenade to Cooden Beach Walk

The walk along Bexhill Promenade to Cooden Beach is a scenic coastal 6.3km loop. It is accessible to walkers of all ages and abilities, making it the ideal location for a weekend family stroll.

The route is flat and easy to navigate, meaning you can give the stunning views your full attention. Along the route, there are various places to take a break and explore. Adjacent to the beach is the De La Warr Pavilion, which hosts art exhibitions, live music, and comedy nights. It also has a Café Bar that provides a much needed rest after your walk. Parking is available in the Pavilion car park, at the beginning of the route.
